

Union Officials

Request

1) How many union officials does your organisation employ? By 'union official' I mean any person who receives wages, expenses or bonuses from your organisation and whose job remit includes liaison with any union, representing the workforce to any union or working on any union-related campaigns.

2) For these individuals please provide:

- a. The full job title of the individuals concerned
- b. The total cost of the person's role (including the total salary, expenses and bonuses associated with them)
- c. A brief job description for the individual's role and name of the person (I understand if you are not able to provide personal details, but would be grateful to receive this if you can)
- d. The name of the unions the individual deals with (e.g. Unison etc)

Our Response

On 1 April 2011 Leicestershire County and Rutland Community Health Services (LCRCHS) and Leicester City Community Health Services (LCCHS) became part of Leicestershire Partnership Trust. Whilst the organisation is currently undergoing a period of restructure, the following information is current at the time of responding to your request and provided separately for each section of the Trust:
