

Legal Costs since 2006

Request

Since April 1 2006, have you incurred

1. any legal costs relating to the resignation, removal, suspension or sacking of any executive board member
2. any legal costs relating to disciplinary actions against any executive board member, or investigations or enquiries into their behaviour or actions (other than ones where they were peripherally involved eg giving evidence against other members of staff)
3. any legal costs relating to employment tribunal or court proceedings (or preparation for proposed actions) brought by a former executive board member.

If you have incurred such costs, please provide a breakdown for each question according to financial year. Please include costs which you have incurred but which may have been met by another party (such as the Department of Health)

Our Response

1. any legal costs relating to the resignation, removal, suspension or sacking of any executive board member

OUR RESPONSE: One member of the Executive Team was dismissed by reason of redundancy following a restructuring within the organisation. Legal spend on that matter was £8,323.00

2. any legal costs relating to disciplinary actions against any executive board member, or investigations or enquiries into their behaviour or actions (other than ones where they were peripherally involved eg giving evidence against other members of staff)

OUR RESPONSE: None

3. any legal costs relating to employment tribunal or court proceedings (or preparation for proposed actions) brought by a former executive board member.

OUR RESPONSE: None